Introduction to Community-Engaged Learning at Southern Miss

Christy Kayser

Director, Community-Engaged Learning

What does the CCE support?

Community-Engaged Learning, which includes

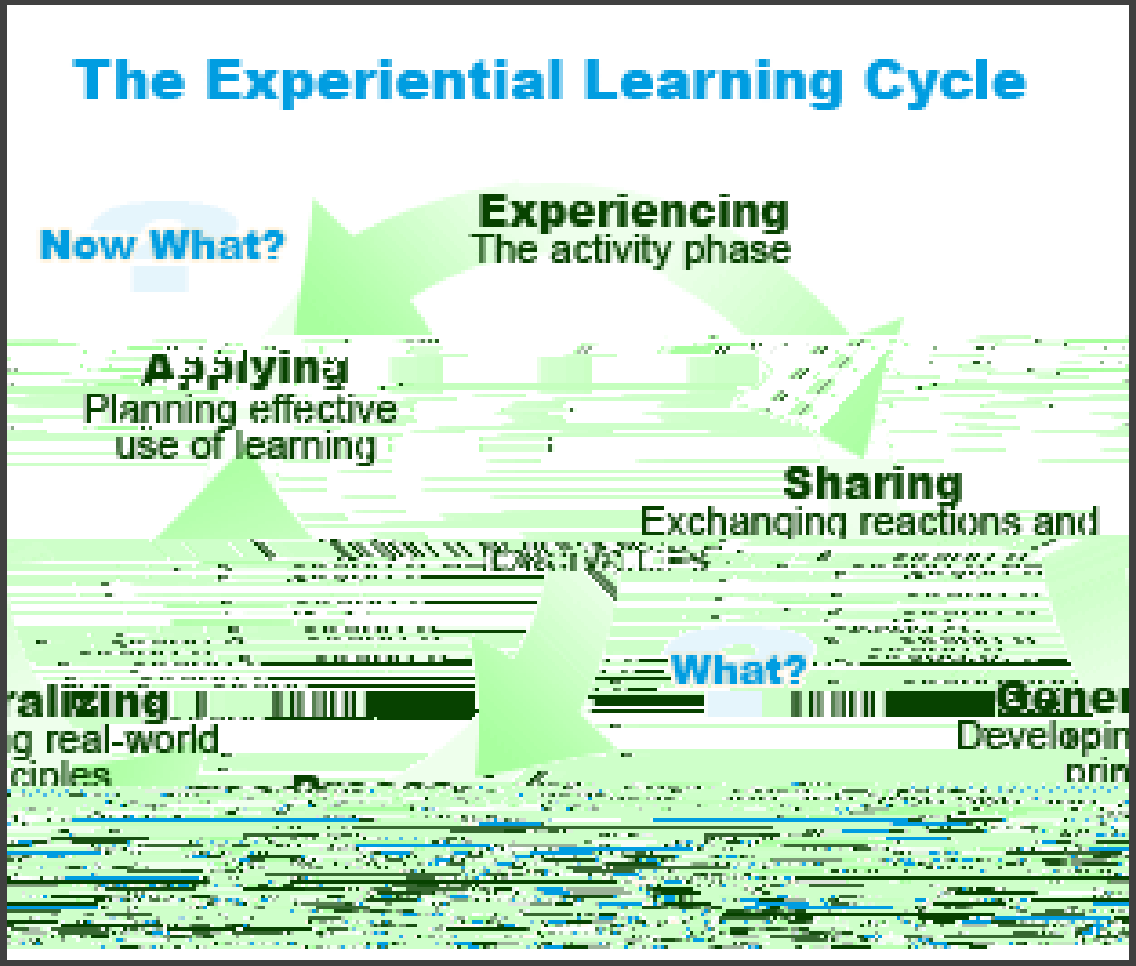
-

What does the CCE support?

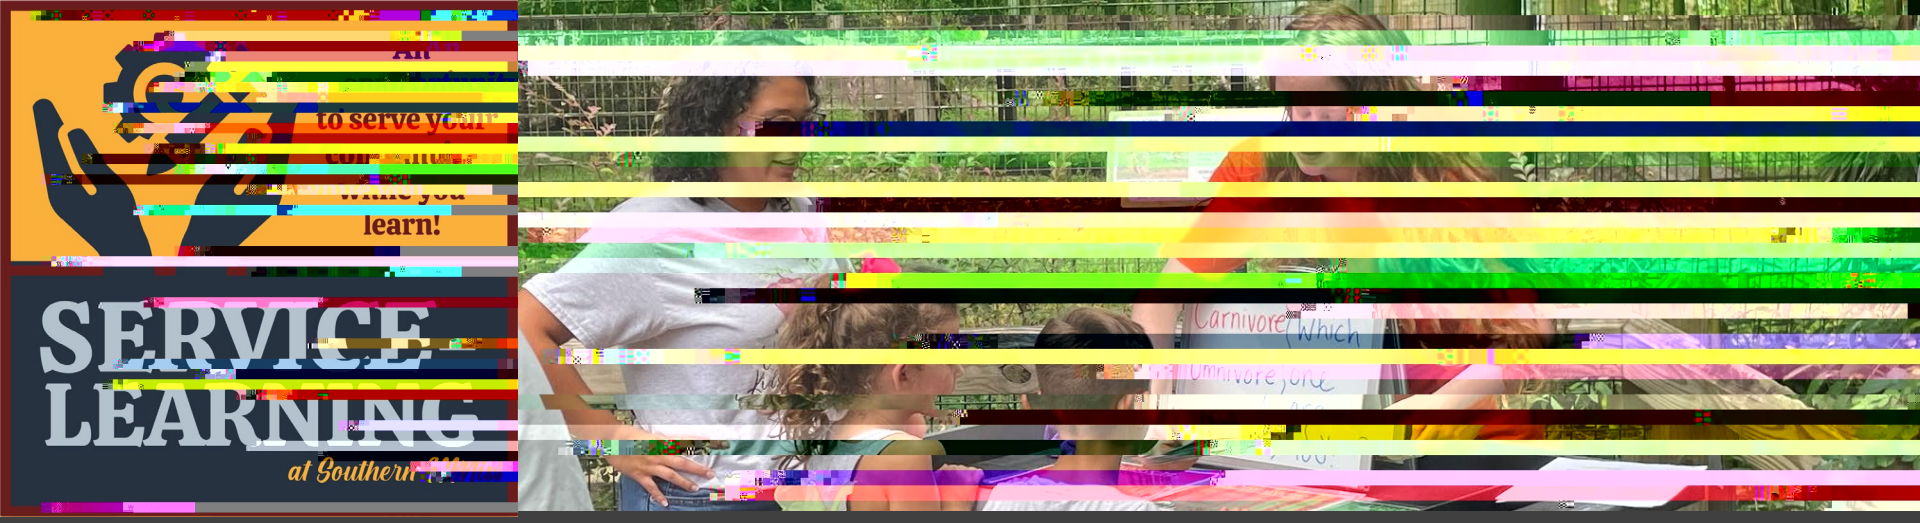
- Community-Engaged Learning
- Academic Service-Learning
  - ASL Designation: sets common definition and ensures best practices.
- Community-Engaged Research
- CCE offers faculty support
  - Course design/project ideas/training
  - Community partner ideas and introductions
  - Connections with other faculty and initiatives.
  - Research collaboration
  - Funding
  - Risk management

Why Community-Engaged Learning?

It’s Good Pedagogy



What does academic



Training for academic service-learning (ASL)

- Faculty learning seminar is every spring (plus a shortened version in December).
- Guides faculty through theory and practice of service-learning
- Seminar participants commit to redesigning and teaching an ASL Designated Course within two years
- Faculty Fellows receive $2400 to teach the initial service-learning course.

Community-Engaged Research (CEnR) at USM

Work in which university and community members work collaboratively to address critical societal issues.

Interdisciplinary Investigations Research Series – apps due in May 2024

Conville Endowment for Community Engaged Teaching and Research – apps due May 15

Undergraduate Research: Eagle SPUR Funding – apps due Mar. 15 & Oct. 15

Faculty Mentor for CEnR:
Charkarra Anderson Lewis
charkarra.andersonlewis@usm.edu

Learn about our community