General expectations and guidelines are outlined in the CBED Policies & Procedures Document. Assessments for teaching, research, and service are outlined above (in the reevaluation section). In addition, the School of Leadership has identified a set of criteria used to assess elite journal status. Faculty who publish an article in an elite journal while at USM may count that article for two publications when considered for promotion and tenure.

Elite publications. The School of Leadership encompasses various academic areas. Therefore, a journal qualifies for elite status under one of the designations listed below.

Method 1: The journal is designated an elite journal by one of the other schools in the College of Business and Economic Development or by one of the other schools in the College of Business and Economic Development.
